P.C.

1. This is an application for condonation of delay of about 17 days in filing the present Civil Revision Application. Only respondent no.1 has filed reply to this application and others have not done so. It appears from the application that the delay was primarily due to the applicants' occupation with the admission procedure and admissions for the new academic year of the educational institute of the respondent no.1. There is no serious dispute about the fact that the admission process was on.

2. Hence, this application for condonation of delay is hereby allowed. No order as to costs.

3. Put up the Civil Revision Application for admission on 14.9.2007.
